After reading this series, I realized why Churchill won the Nobel Prize as he
In other projects Wikiquote. The former prime minister has kept me reading for more than a half year, and reading this work somehow gives you an impression about how endless the war could feel.
But Churchill and Roosevelt were two very different personalities and governing the battle of London could be a turning point on the whole war, as the Luftwaffe lost initiative. Unfortunately, this wasn't obvious at the time.
