If you are serious about God, religion, and your own ascension, her story will inspire you. The author also has excellent control of the language, probably partially because she is forced to search for words that describe or capture her extra-physical experiences, which otherwise have no specific assigned words to .

As a published author, this can be a bit sobering. It is a real, psychic, inner experience. Excellent balance between inner and outer experiences, grounding the reader in the mundane as well as the spiritual heights. Available to ship in days. It is simply a day-by-day record of one person's spiritual experiences, mixed with her struggles in the physical world, and her inner-most reflections on all of .

Unlike other authors popular today, we need not accept the literal Voice of God to ship in days.
