Was in stitches with Kip's campfire moments, disturbed by the prison, and loved every moment of this book. He became tired of the various stereotypes and prejudices that mortals held of the devil, such as the idea that he purchased and traded for souls, which was largely untrue, and that he forced mortals to commit evil acts. Justwasn'tthebookforme!I thoroughly enjoyed the captivating plot and the author's touch of humor, well done! It's not like it's a new thing .
