He believed at all times that being yourself was the only way to go, and he teaches Trevor how to love, both himself and Trevor. Trevor is a fresh college grad.

Author Annabeth Albert treats us to another book about reality television, y But about half-way through, all of a sudden it seemed to click. They work a little like therapy on each other Albert and Me slowly as Trevor opens up and becomes more confident and less snarky they realise that they actually make quite a good group, he even becomes friendlier with Carter and Carson, the other loved up couple that make up their foursome. So looking forward to book three and Michelin's story.

Jalen was such a awesome character and I loved how he and Trevor interacted and it's an overarching theme of the series, but the religion stuff was just too heavy and too infuriating, again, for me to truly love this story.
