It didn't happen often, but occasionally they would drop a name, or a concept, as if the reader should have prior knowledge and would not either in narration or through characters explain or hint at the meaning of that piece of knowledge until pages later. It seems like kind of a unique approach to me, but a good one if written .

It makes me want to live there forever. Mrs Eileen Tilston rated it it was amazing Mar 23, Even minor, or side characters, were a delight to read - and the dialogue was a joy it is certainly something the Verishes excel at.

I picked this up when it was free for Kindle, not realizing that it was a novel let the story is satisfying. Jan 28, Jenclone rated it it was amazing.
