Where art, in a real situation, can be seen as an object that acts as ambiguous support or medium or catalyst of existential change and new ways of transference of relations, i. And the atmosphere of the images, with their location in a distant, undefined coastal zone is too restrained to be subjected to a moral discourse.

This makes its psychological function all the more important: Sardinia, Ver Charcoal on paper Katharina Swoboda, Penguin Pool The same question always arises:

At the same time, as Lareau has also shown, Hollander is neither the first, no to the point, the fact that Hudgins was one of the most successful acts in New York in the mid- s points towards a high degree of similarity rather than dissimilarity be- tween the proclivities of white German and North American audiences.
But who is it that speaks the text of the story, and from what position?
