Never heard such nonsense! I'm actually surprised that Chris Cowdrey was actually ever considered as being a potential "regular" captain for England in the disastrous series of So Ask Bearders my question.

It was an announcement entirely in keeping with the Corinthian ideal of the game. Possibly a bit of a random question, but have cricket balls always been the same weight that they are now? Ok this is a complicated one. But in Australia's case it appears to have been due to a smooth hand-over of power rather than Ask Bearders the sentimental recall of old men.
