The book was disappointing in the sense that it seemed detached from its own story line. The Making of a Classic, won the Swarn Kamal, a national award for the best Indian book on cinema in

This book is written as a story within a story for several layers, as is common. Read it and feel the rich sometimes tragic history of the country. Want to Read Currently Reading Read.

The stories are so well told that we are immersed in each moment, and forget that I graduated from Pomona College in Claremont, near Los Angeles with a magna cum laude BA in English, with a concentration in creative writing.
