My rating is based mostly on the writing style though and it doesn't mean that it lists with this book. By giving young musicians the inside scoop on performing and practicing, this book can smooth their musical path so they can weather the rough spots, and keep the fun and the joy in their music making. If you have a budding musician in your home it may well be worth a look. Learning to play a musical instrument can be fun, but also a bit of a hassle at times.
