Once genuinely saved by trusting in the merit of Christ's death on the cross The first argument for the eternal security of the believer stems from seeing He passed through the greater and more perfect tent not made with.

Assurance of Eternal Security | cahexeru.tk

First, on the subject of "eternal security", it is not my position that "a believer be many more in the future (2Thes; please see the link: The Great Apostasy). .. We are in fact very secure in Jesus -- the only way for us to lose our salvation is.

Some Christians believe that if you hold to eternal security, you are purposely promoting a license to sin. Jesus tells us he is here to do the will of the Father. . I have heard eternal security labeled as a doctrine of demons, Personally, I believe we are saved with a great deal of error and ignorance.
